EAT

As its name suggests, Alter Ego serves up two vastly different types of fare. By day, graze on wholesome nosh like Hawaiian poke and smoothie bowls; at night, binge on heart-stopping dishes like buffalo wings and pizza fries. The latter are topped with pepperoni slices and drenched in a gooey three-cheese sauce. alterego.sg

While S$12.80 might seem exorbitant for a plate of nasi lemak (rice cooked in coconut milk and pandan leaf) at The Coconut Club, we daresay that it's worth every penny. The beloved local dish is elevated to new heights here – only top-grade West African coconuts imported from Selangor are used for the rice, while the otah (grilled fish cake) is painstakingly made from scratch. wash them down with cocktails like Aromatised Oolong (osmanthus peach vodka, demerara sugar, citrus and prosecco). phatcatlaundry.com
